Abstract (en)
[origin: WO0153003A2] The invention concerns a fluid product dispenser comprising: a soft pouch containing the fluid product, said pouch having an opening; a pouch support whereon the pouch opening is fixed; a dispensing member, such as a pump, to draw the fluid product from the soft pouch by pressing on a push-member, said soft pouch not having a rigid shell enclosing or encasing the soft pouch. The invention is characterised in that it comprises gripping means whereby the dispenser is held for applying pressure on the push member, said gripping means leaving the soft pouch at least partly exposed.
[origin: WO0153003A2] The invention concerns a fluid product dispenser comprising: a soft pouch (1) containing the fluid product, said pouch having an opening; a pouch support (2) whereon the pouch opening (1) is fixed; a dispensing member (3), such as a pump, to draw the fluid product from the soft pouch by pressing on a push-member (35), said soft pouch not having a rigid shell enclosing or encasing the soft pouch. The invention is characterised in that it comprises gripping means (4) whereby the dispenser is held for applying pressure on the push member, said gripping means leaving the soft pouch at least partly exposed.
