Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1258329A2] Machine for processing narrow-sided plate-like workpieces such as plates for furniture or interior decorating comprises a gluing machine (8) for gluing edge strips (9) on the narrow sides of a workpiece (5). A support device (14, 22) supporting the edge strip is provided in the region of the conveying path of the edge strip between the intermediate conveyor (13) and the gluing machine and/or between the magazine (11) of edge strip material and the intermediate conveyor. Preferred Features: The support device is arranged on the intermediate conveyor, gluing machine or magazine so that they move together.
