Abstract (en)
[origin: FR2806062A1] A box made from a semi-rigid material such as cardboard, and comprising a base (1) and a lid with a window (3) in at least one of them, has the base and/or lid sealed by a transparent plastic film layer (4) covering its whole inner surface and not just the window. The film is of a thermally weldable material which can be used to stick any joints in the material of the box and fix the lid in place.
