Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1274049A1] A top section (10) has display devices (11) like rotating cylinders/disks/cubes/flip cards/symbols that are synchronized with the display devices on the gaming machines in a system of gaming machines and consequently display the same symbol combination. The gaming machines in the system each have a central control unit and are networked with each other. A central control unit also controls them jointly.
