Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1279778A2] The panel comprises a first projecting profile (1) at one edge. The profile is open towards the top and has an undercut (10,11). The panel further comprises a second profile (2) which has projecting lug (17) on its opposite edge. The lug is open towards the bottom and engages the same profile in the undercut (10,11). At least one of the profiles is elastically yielding in its longitudinal direction.
