Abstract (en)

[origin: WO0185439A1] A method is provided for manufacturing a reinforcing sheet containing at least one sheet made of a plurality of high tensile modulus fiber monofilaments (12). The sheet defines a first surface (13) and a second surface (15). A first scrim (18) is bonded to the first surface of the sheet and a second scrim (18') is bonded to the second surface of the sheet.
