Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1291285A1] The packaging case, made from a blank, comprises four panels (1-4) with foldable end flaps (10,12). There is a wedging structure (II) integral with the panels delimited by a four panel partition (21,22) forming a compartment. All the side of the compartment section have a decrease in section in the same direction as the two opposite partition panels joining one of the compartment transverse ends. An Independent claim is included for a blank.
