Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1293236A1] A puzzle set comprises a plurality of puzzle elements (2;4), each to be placed at a certain position in an assembly (1). At least some of the puzzle elements (2;4) comprise a marking (3,5), which marking (3,5) contains a code relating to the position of the puzzle element (2;4) in the assembly (1). The code is disguised in the marking (2;4) in such a way as to become recognisable when a definite operation is performed. <IMAGE>
