Abstract (en)
[origin: WO0211105A2] The invention relates to a picture holder for interchangeably keeping and presenting mainly two-dimensional images such as photos, art prints, drawings, pictures or similar. The picture holder consists of a support plate (1), a viewing panel (2) and a picture (3) to be placed between them. The support plate and the viewing panel are arched in the direction of a longitudinal axis and either the support plate consists of an elastic material and the viewing panel is rigid or the viewing panel consists of an elastic material and the support plate is rigid. The arrangement is held together by frame strip sections (4) with an integrated guiding groove (5).
