Abstract (en)
A self adhesive label 1 for a container containing a pharmaceutical to be administered to a patient has separable portions 8, 9. A front face 2 of the label has overprint areas 3 to receive a code such as a batch number and / or date of manufacture. A receptor varnish is applied to the overprint areas 3 to overprinting. The front face 2 of the label also has indicia printed thereon and a slip varnish to protect the indicia is applied over the front face with the exception of the overprint areas 3. <IMAGE>
