Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1317022A1] The electrical plug has an isolating body with a forward section (12) and a rear section (13). There are three holes, each with an isolating material retractable shutter (20), and activated by a pin. There are flexible return sections (30) for each of the shutters separately. There is a slab section (42) with cavity and flexible strip (38) with holes (49) allowing separation pin entry.
