Abstract (en)

[origin: WO0239247A2] The user goes to a Web imaging homepage. The user selects a printer from the list of available printers. The user then goes to the configuration options screen that is the various options available for the printer. The user then select options desired as a default. Preferably, the user selects the print immediately option. After selecting options desired, the user has to select a document to be printed. The user then merely clicks on the document to be printed and the document is printed.
