Abstract (en)

[origin: FR2820234A1] The invention concerns a device for displaying samples, particularly designed for cosmetic products, comprising a frame whereof one front edge receives said samples. The invention is characterised in that said front edge is formed by a profiled section (1) having a base (10) bordered by fixed flaps (11, 12), and the samples are arranged in a bar-type rack (4) which is placed beneath a removable top (2) forming a lid for the profiled section (1).
