Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1362958A2] Agricultural or industrial vehicle (10) has a work tool (30) with a lift drive (25) and an additional drive (35) for controlling rotation of the work tool at the free end (21) of the tool mounting unit (20). Said additional drive is independent of the lifting force applied to the lifting drive. The invention also relates to a corresponding control unit for work tool of a agricultural or industrial vehicle.
