Abstract (en)

[origin: WO02078133A1] The invention relates to an adapter (1) for connecting an electric plug-in connection (4) of a fuel-injection valve to a mating connector (6). One end (3) of said adapter can be plugged into a plug-in connection (4) of the fuel-injection valve and the second end (5) can be plugged into a mating connector (6). A first seal (7) is located between the first end (3) of the adapter (1) and the plug-in connection (4) of the fuel-injection valve and a second seal (8) is located between the second end (5) of the adapter (1) and the mating connector (6).
