Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1391399A2] There is provided a powder container for storing or transporting powder, the container comprising an elongate deformable plastic bag (40) having an aperture defined at one end being less than half the maximum width of the bag, wherein the walls of the bag taper inwardly between the maximum width to the aperture, which aperture is supported by and defined by an elongate collar (42) connected to the bag. <??>There is also provided a method of manufacturing such a powder container comprising a deformable bag having an elongate collar. <IMAGE>
