Abstract (en)

[origin: WO03002217A2] The invention relates to a device for fastening a ski binding or parts thereof to a ski or the like, wherein a holding device is firmly mounted on the ski, especially in the form of a holding plate (22). The binding and /or parts thereof (25,26) can be attached and/or locked to said holding plate so that they can be easily detached if need be.
