Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1400317A1] The auxiliary handgrip (1) has a fixing section (2) for attaching it to the tool and a grip section (3), which together with the fixing section forms a closed frame, the connections between the grip section and the fixing section provided with an elastic vibration-damping material (34). The latter material may form the surface of the auxiliary handgrip at least at the connection points (35,36).
