Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1401001A2] The electric switch (2) has a switch setting indicator (19) with a pivoting indication lever (20) that has an indication field (27) externally visible in one position through a housing window (29). A drive part of the indication lever interacts with the switching wheel (16) of a stepper switch mechanism (5) with a guide for a journal on the lever.
