Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1405574A2] The padding is integrated into the trousers or pants and fixed, and can also be removed. The trousers are seamless in the rider's crutch/seat area and have two layers in the crotch area (3) to create one or several insertion pockets (4). The pocket(s) are fastened by Velcro fasteners or other mechanical fasteners to prevent the padding from sliding out of the pants. An Independent claim is made for the padding.
