Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1419822A1] A range of parts may be fitted together with simple tools in various configurations to meet changing laboratory needs. The components are resistant to chemical action and provision is made for utilities and communications. Vertical metal beams (1) with feet (2) carry pairs of horizontal supports (4) which bear a working surface (5,9) and utility supplies (15,16,17,18).
