Abstract (en)
A multifunction imitating-paper rattan body mainly comprise an imitating-paper rattan body (20) containing a strengthened core (21) inside. Said imitating-paper rattan body (20) is a structure formed integrally, which resists wet, heat, and drawing. And, in the process of forming, the spiral body (22) is formed integrally on the external diameter of the imitating-paper rattan body (20), so that the imitating-paper rattan body (20) becomes the structure with high structural strength. <IMAGE>
