Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1424141A1] Stencil comprises a frame or composing stick (4) having connections for exchangeable profiles (1). The connections are removable so that words, figures, names, etc. can be placed on fabric, walls, furniture, windows, T-shirts, dishes, doormats, carpets, paper or card, etc. Preferred Features: The frame is a rectangle closed by four sides. A pair of holding slits (9, 10) provided on opposite-lying sides of the frame determine the parts where tabs (2, 3) of the profile have to be arranged in a row to produce a figure (word or drawing).
