Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1425980A1] The cleaning glove (1) for use without water has a first panel (2) and a second panel (3) connected by a zone (4) to define an inner cavity (10) between the panels at one side of the connecting zone. There is a flexible strap on the other side (13) of the connecting zone. The strap has at least two layers formed as rectangles and the cavity is oriented obliquely relative to the layers. Claims include a method of making the claimed cleaning glove.
