Abstract (en)

[origin: JP2003054158A] PROBLEM TO BE SOLVED: To provide a book cover, a binder or a holder which prevents a book or a document from becoming fouled or damaged and is convenient for carrying the book or the document. SOLUTION: This book cover or binder with a handle is convenient for carrying the book or the document by holding the handle or a strap by hand or slinging it on the shoulder. In addition, the handle can be fitted in a freely folding manner and also the handle and/or the strap can be fitted to the book cover, the binder or the holder in a freely attachable/detachable manner. Besides, a communication ticket holder and/or a pocket can be provided on the face and/or the back of the book cover, the binder or the holder and a gripper for gripping a pencil or various kinds of pen can be attached.
