Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1428941A2] Arrangement for adjustably attaching sanitary objects comprises a wall pole having a continuous guide profile for guiding a slide (6), and at least one holder (2) for fixing the wall pole on a wall or similar object, which leaves free the part of the guide profile guiding the slide. Preferred Features: The holder is connected to the wall pole in its end region by a socket or click-in connection. The arrangement has several at least partly identical holders.
