Abstract (en)

[origin: WO03023140A1] A method for producing documents, securities, banknotes and the like with security elements, which consists in producing a sheet-like element inside which a security element is partially incorporated. The particularity of the invention is constituted by the fact that distinctive markings are provided on the security element directly before the step for incorporating the security element in the sheet-like element. The distinctive markings are arranged in register with at least one portion of said sheet-like element and can be differentiated for each document.
