Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1439007A2] The device applies color to a web (5) using a template (4) and a doctor device, also a fixing element (1) for the doctor roller (2) and its guide. An at least partly flexible connection (8) between the doctor device and the fixing element permits the doctor device to move relative to the fixing element in at least two, preferably three, directions in space.
