Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1442897A1] An envelope, particularly for containing sheets and the like, with tamper-evident seal, comprising an envelope-like containment body (1) that forms a pouch (2) for accommodating a plurality of sheets (10) that can be closed by an openable flap (3) that interacts with a fixed flap (4). The particularity of the invention consists in that it comprises a tamper-evident seal (20) that bears a product identification code (22) and can be arranged on the openable flap (3) and on the fixed flap (4). The seal cannot be restored once opened. <IMAGE>
