Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1442941A1] The clip has a clip head (17) pointed at front end (27) and broaden at rear end, and connected to rest of clip by narrower central core (18). The head in the form of U-shape has two lateral edges (26) converging towards the front end and diverging or flaring towards rear open or closed end. A base (11) has inclined and convergent lateral walls, a tight mounting plate (19) and a positioning lug (36). An independent claim is also included for a protective and decorative strip for a vehicle body.
