Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1445201A1] The package (10) e.g. box, has a cavity (11) with an article perfume bottle. The cavity has a visualization section (20) visualizing the bottle along an observation direction. The section visualizes a decorative motif along another observation direction. The section has a transparent sheet (21) and a face (22a) enabling the visualization of the bottle and the motif, respectively, and extending in different planes. The visualization section enables the visualization of another decorative motif along a third direction of visualization that is different from the former and later direction of visualization.
