Abstract (en)

[origin: WO03036199A2] The present invention provides a refrigerator having a cabinet, a pivot pin and a storage bin. The cabinet defines a storage area and includes first and second laterally spaced apart sidewalls. The pivot pin is secured to the cabinet and inwardly extends into the storage area. The storage bin is disposed in the storage area and includes a receiving portion for receiving the pivot pin. The storage bin is pivotal about the pivot pin between a first position and a second position.
