Abstract (en)

[origin: WO03053822A1] The invention relates to a shipping crate (1) for plastic sealing frames (8.1), especially for household refrigerators. Said shipping crate comprises a plurality of carrier arms (4) for receiving the successively arranged sealing frames in a suspended manner. The inventive shipping crate is characterised in that the, or each, carrier arm comprises a support (5), the side thereof facing the sealing frame being provided with a plurality of holding recesses which respectively receive a sealing frame and are used to hold the sealing frames apart from each other.
