Abstract (en)

[origin: WO03050101A1] The invention relates to deuterated substituted dihydrofuranones and to medicaments containing these compounds. The invention also relates to the use of deuterated substituted dihydrofuranones for treating symptoms associated with irritated states of degenerative joint diseases, of acute pains and of primary dysmenorrhoea. The invention additionally discloses pharmaceutical compositions containing deuterated substituted dihydrofuranones and to their physiologically compatible salts in addition to pharmaceutically compatible adjuvants and/or additives for treating symptoms associated with irritated states of degenerative joint diseases, of acute pains and of primary dysmenorrhoea.
