Abstract (en)
Assembly of a container having a wall defining an accommodation space (17) and a filling material (200) placed in the accommodation space, which filling material originates from previous use, such as a rock wool mat, or waste, such as sawdust. Preferably the container is substantially plate-shaped. Preferably the container is intended for use in or on construction works, wherein the container is provided with means for mutual connection, particularly coupling. <IMAGE>
