Abstract (en)
[origin: WO03054808A2] Disclosed is a device for processing sheet material, particularly banknotes, comprising at least one electric circuit. The inventive device is provided with a test device for transmitting energy and/or data to the electric circuit of the sheet material and/or for receiving energy and/or data from the electric circuit of the sheet material. At least part of the transmitted energy and/or data are used for processing.
