Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1462029A2] The arrangement consists of strip-shaped lamellas (30) that can be fixed in more than one position with vertical separations (a). The lamellas can be fixed in more than one different position with vertical separations using a latching arrangement (35). The latching arrangement has vertically protruding spring hooks (36) that protrude into openings (37) in following lamellas.
