Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1466542A2] The assembly has two arms (4, 5) mounted on a handle (2) and an application unit (12) for applying cosmetic composition on a surface to be applied. The application unit is held between the arms. The handle comprises a holding unit for holding a reservoir (15) containing a cosmetic product in a position to prevent a charge of the application unit when the product is applied against the application surface.
