Abstract (en)

[origin: WO03070474A1] The invention relates to a printing module for mounting in shop scales. Said printing module comprises a base plate (1) having mounting areas for two printing groups (6, 6') and two print roll unwinding bearings (4, 17). Said printing module can be used to simultaneously operate the scales in an operating mode in which goods sold are logged on a paper strip, and in a display mode in which goods display labels are printed on a label strip.
