Abstract (en)
[origin: WO03076514A2] The invention relates to polymer mixtures containing polymers which absorb aqueous liquids and form a hydrogel. Said polymer mixtures are produced by polymerizing olefinically unsaturated carbon acids or the derivatives thereof along with copolymers containing C2 - C8 olefin or styrolyene with anhydrides. Also disclosed are the production of the inventive polymer mixtures, the use thereof, and hygiene products containing said polymer mixtures.
