Abstract (en)
[origin: WO03084362A1] The aim of the invention is to provide a container that can be used for holding and discharging a free-flowing medium, in particular soldering fluid (9) and especially a soldering fluid container (1), which has a simple and rapid action. To achieve this, the container (1) is provided with application means (4) in the vicinity of an outlet opening (10) for applying the free-flowing medium, in particular soldering fluid (9). The invention thus provides a dispenser, in particular a soldering fluid dispenser (1), which can be operated by one hand and is simple and reliable to use.
