Abstract (en)
A child support arrangement (10) comprises a base arrangement (12) comprising first and second base members (16, 18). A hinge arrangement (20) is provided to connect the first and second base members (16,18) to each other. The first and second base members (16,18) can be folded about the hinge arrangement (20) between an open condition and a folded condition. Locking means (60) is associated with the hinge arrangements (20) for taking the first and second base members (16, 18) in at least the open condition.
