Abstract (en)
[origin: WO03095290A1] The invention relates to a front wall module (1) for a motor vehicle and a motor vehicle having said front wall module. The inventive front wall module forms at least one area of a front wall that defines the passenger compartment of a motor vehicle, wherein said front wall module contains functional units such as the fan (10) for ventilating the passenger compartment or the like. The front wall module has a capping piece (20) that is connected to two longitudinal beams of the motor vehicle.
