Abstract (en)
[origin: WO03094680A1] The invention relates to a packaging for a piece of fruit, comprises a blister part (1-5) and a cover film that is hermetically connected to the blister part following positioning of a piece of fruit in the packaging. The blister part comprises a seed trap, e.g. in the form of protrusions (6, 7 and 8) and comprises a rupture indicator (4), whereby an opening in the hermetically closed packaging can be provided enabling fruit juice to be dispensed through the opening without it being blocked by fruit pulp or seeds.
