Abstract (en)
[origin: WO03106291A1] Packaging assembly consisting of a relatively rigid outer package such as a slatted crate with a large opening surface area. An inner package is accommodated therein which is flexible and has relatively large openings with a surface area of 0,75-5 m² to make aeration possible. Such a package is suitable in particular for peppers which can keep well for a prolonged period in such a package.
