Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1526415A1] The device has two indicator disks (1,2) arranged side by side, where the disk (1) indicates units of the date and the disk (2) indicates tens of the date. The units and tens appear side by side in an aperture (3) arranged across an hour indicator dial. The disks are transparent such that color of an underlying surface (4) of the disks is contrast to the color of the date indication.
