Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1538417A1] The multilayered armor plate for protection against impacts, projectiles and the like comprises a ceramic or metal layer (2) which is provided with a front support layer (4) consisting of glass fiber and/or carbon fiber reinforced plastic materials. Independent claims are also included for: (A) applications of the proposed armor plate in vehicles, vessels, aircraft and spacecraft, as well as in protective vests; (B) a method for producing such an armor plate.
