Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1553257A2] The woodwork has a panel (10) with an armor plate (12), an opening (20) cut in the panel, and a glazing (30) placed in the opening. A fixation unit (40) has a connection unit for connecting the glazing directly to a part (121), of the plate, projecting from an edge (15) of the panel. The connection unit has a metallic profile (41) to transmit force from the glazing to the plate. The plate defines a free section smaller than the glazing.
