Abstract (en)
Holder (3) for placing on the edge of a drinking vessel (1) comprises at least one recess and/or at least one opening for receiving at least one edible object (2). The recess reaches at least partly under the vessel edge and is surrounded by the holder edge (6). The opening is shaped so that the edible object passes at least partly downward through the holder. The holder is pressed onto the vessel edge to secure it against falling downward. An independent claim is also included for a drinking vessel comprising a holder and an edible object in or on the holder. Preferred Features: The edible object is a savory biscuit or confectionery, especially a chocolate.
