Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1582685A2] The strip has a base part (4) for positioning on a window frame, door frame or blind guide. A plaster joint part (6) is provided for joining to plaster. A flexible connecting wall (8) is provided between the base part and the plaster joint part, and the three parts are manufactured integrally. A material bridge (24) between the base and plaster joint part can be removed after the plaster joint is created.
